

For Immediate Release

ENVIROTHON STATE CHAMPIONS AGAIN!!!

The Logos 'Rogue Pack' won the Oregon State Envirothon competition in Oregon Garden, Silverton, Oregon on Friday, May 3rd! This big win sends the students off to represent the State of Oregon in the largest North American Environmental Science Competition, to be held July 28 - Aug 2 at North Carolina State University in Raleigh, North Carolina.

This is the 3rd time in 5 years that Logos has won the Oregon State Envirothon and traveled to represent Oregon in the national competition!

Please contact Logos Science & Inquiry teacher and coach Christopher Van Ness with any questions or for an interview with students. cvanness@logoscharter.com or 541-944-1981

Information about the national competition: <https://www.envirothon.org/the-competition/current-competition>
North American Envirothon Factsheet: <http://www.envirothon.org/pdf/factsheet.pdf>

Envirothon State Champs!

For the 3rd Time in 5 years Logos Envirothon team has won the Oregon State Environmental Sciences competition in Silverton, Oregon!

Congratulations Rogue Pack!

They will go on to the national competition this summer in North Carolina!

