

FERPA Notification

Parents/legal guardians have the right to:

- request and inspect your child's record
- request to amend the record if you believe it is inaccurate
- disallow any disclosures of directory information
- file a complaint with the US Department of Education regarding the school's failure to comply with FERPA